Saltwater City: An Illustrated History of the Chinese in ...

Canada's first Chinese arrived in British Columbia in 1858 from California. Almost all mee—merchan Saltwater City pays tribute to those who went through the hard times, to those who swallowed their pride, to those who were powerless and humiliated, but who still carried on. They all had faith that things would be better for future generations.

Saltwater City An Illustrated History Of The Chinese In ...

Written by Paul Yee, a third-generation Chinese-Canadian in search of his own roots as well as those of the community, Saltwater City brings the perceptions of a previously diffident community to its own history. A text resonant with often painful first-person recollections combines with 200 photographs, most reproduced for the first time, to form a chronological portrait of the community from its earliest beginnings to the present. With the assimilation of its people into the mainstream of ...

Saltwater City : an illustrated history of the Chinese in ...

Saltwater City is the name given to Vancouver by Chinese immigrants. The anecdotes regarding hardships faced by Chinese immigrants and their later successes brings this history to life. The over 200 photos, the earliest one in 1868, document the story of racial discrimination and later social and political acceptance. The many subheadings allow browsing rather than studious reading.

Yee, Paul (1956-....)

Salt in Chinese history was both a driver of technological development and a stable source of revenue for the imperial government. ... This practice even caused the formation of cities, such as the city of Munich in 1158, when the then Duke of Bavaria, Henry the Lion, decided that the bishops of Freising no longer needed their salt revenue. The gabelle—a hated French salt tax—was enacted ...
