RIYADH: Foreign expats living in Saudi Arabia have been resisting the temptation to head home in the wake of the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic, opting instead to stay put in the Kingdom.

Foreign expats choose Saudi Arabia over home countries ...

In the past Saudi Arabia offered free healthcare for nationals and expats alike. However as expat numbers began to grow it became increasingly clear that such a policy was unsustainable. These days health insurance is mandatory for all non-nationals entering the country in order to help maintain the existing healthcare infrastructure.

Saudi Arabia is an incredible country to explore. Gasoline is ridiculously cheap allowing lengthy, cheap road trips from desert to coast. Highlights for me include Mada'in Saleh, Al Ula, and Jeddah. However, highest praise reserved for the rarely visited coastal town of Haql up on the North West border with Jordan.
