Like the protagonist of her new coming-of-age tale, author Quillan Kelly-Dunn grew up on Chicago's south side. She attended a Catholic grammar school, high school, and college. Quillan Kelly-Dunn went on to receive her Masters of Arts degree. Quillan Kelly-Dunn lives with her family on the south side of Chicago. With the support of her husband and children, Quillan has learned to laugh at the challenges she faces and help others overcome their own obstacles.

My novel is about growing up on the south side of Chicago and the mentality that comes along with it; or maybe it's just me. I struggled for years with the fear of "putting myself out there" and worrying what people think until I realized that unless you put yourself out there, you will remain invisible in this world. A South Side Story is now available on paperback and kindle through Amazon ...

Left feeling like John Coffey...via Daily Prompt: Narcissism The words I used to associate with narcissism are: Pompous, arrogant, grandiose, cocky, conceited with an inflated sense of self-importance. Then I actually had "interactions" "friendships" and "relationships" and with men and women who have narcissistic personality disorder.

"South Side" is a song written and recorded by American electronica musician Moby. It was released on November 7, 2000 as the seventh single from his fifth studio album Play. Initially recorded with No Doubt frontwoman Gwen Stefani, production problems forced Moby to leave Stefani's vocals off the mix of the song included on Play; Stefani's vocals were then restored for the song's single ...

South Side (song) - Wikipedia

Quillan (Languedocien: Quilhan) is a commune in the Aude department in southern France. On 1 January 2016, the former commune of Brenac was merged into Quillan. Geography. Quillan is located at the foothills of the Pyrenees, on the road between Carcassonne and Perpignan. The River Aude runs through the town. At the base of the mountains, fields of sunflowers and vineyards straddle the roads ...
