Lesson 3 Main Ideas and Details

The main idea of a paragraph is what the paragraph is all about. In most paragraphs, the main idea is actually stated in the paragraph. That statement is the topic sentence. A topic sentence may be anywhere in a paragraph, but most often it is either the first sentence or the last.

The bluebirds playing in my yard are a lovely sight. They are Eastern Bluebirds, and their bright feathers easily catch my eye. They seem always to appear in groups of two or three. I wonder if they are families or just "friends." They move about in such a lively way from ground to telephone wires and back. And the little chitter I hear almost sounds like laughter.

Write the topic sentence from the paragraph.

The other sentences include details that support, or tell about, the main idea. Write two details from the paragraph.
