Teaching From Rest A Homeschoolers

Teaching from Rest is a quarterly read for me because that's how often I need a shot in the arm not just for spearheading my kids' education, but for parenting. This book does just that. Sarah reminds me that I'm made to do this job of sharing the journey with my children, pointing the way as I forge my own path of learning. Her words are balm in a desert that taunts us with a need to be ...

For years I have recommended that new homeschoolers read For the Children's Sake by Susan Schaeffer Macaulay so that they can develop a vision for education that goes beyond the academics. That book is still excellent, especially for those who lean toward a Charlotte Mason approach to education. When I came across Teaching from Rest: A Homeschooler's Guide to Unshakable Peace, I suspected ...

Product Reviews: Teaching from Rest: A Homeschooler's ...

Teaching From Rest is a powerfully good little book. Slim, engaging and spiritually uplifting, it is a fast read but a paradigm shifting text. Teaching From Rest is a bridge book. For those who are immersed in Classical approaches to homeschooling, TFR lays out the spiritual principles of relationship and the true vocation of homeschooling.
