Polly Stenham caused a theatrical sensation with her first play, That Face, written when she was just 17. It transferred from the Royal Court to the West End and won her a fistful of awards. How do you follow that? Second plays, like second albums and second novels, are notoriously difficult, but Stenham, now a grand old lady of 22, has another success on her hands with Tusk Tusk. You could argue that she isn't exactly breaking new ground. That Face dealt with two teenage children attempting to ...
