The Algerine Spy In Pennsylvania

With its commentary about men and women, business and pleasure, and historical and religious comparisons between nations, The Algerine Spy in Pennsylvania provides both a contemporary snapshot of early American life and the political ideas of the period. Never before reprinted, and recently rated one of the five best works in the history of America's encounter with the Arab world, this new edition is edited by historian Timothy Marr, who reconsiders the importance of this early work in the ...
