In The Book Thief food represents caring. Rosa is a bad cook, and her pea soup is unappetizing, but she generously feeds others in need, as all are. Rosa speaks harshly but still loves those around her; similarly her food tastes bad but gives sustenance. Walter gives Max food while Max is hiding, but the food almost chokes Max. As a symbol of caring, Max's choking on Walter's food indicates Max needs more than what Walter can do for him and signals to Max he must leave if he is to be safe.
