The Discoverers. A History of Man's Search to Know His ...

Daniel J. Boorstin first describes the liberating concept of time--"the first grand discovery"--and continues through the age of exploration and the advent of the natural and social sciences. The approach is idiosyncratic, with Boorstin lingering over particular figures and accomplishments rather than rushing on to the next set of names and dates.

The Discoverers (Knowledge Series Book 2) 1st Vintage Book ...

Boorstin's flair for the vivid anecdote, for fresh points of view, and for the dramatic relationship of ideas has made him the most readable of our eminent historians. The story of our world is not the usual succession of battles and empires and political leaders, but a tale of discoveries and beginnings.
