The Reggae Riddim

The term 'riddim' is the Jamaican patois spelling of rhythm. Thus a riddim is defined as a movement or procedure with uniform or patterned recurrence of a beat, accent, or the like. Going as far back as 1970, reggae music whose main proponent being dancehall has relied heavily on the riddim culture phenomenon. While a dancehall song consists of a deejay singing (voicing over) a riddim, the riddim is not exclusive to that song, a characteristic not applicable to other genres.

Au départ constitué d'une tournée en 2018 réunissant quatre artistes suisses et néerlandaises, il prend aujourd'hui la forme d'un riddim produit par Res Staudenmann, mixé par Ludovic Hoarau de La Réunion et masterisé par l'ingénieur de son suisse Oli Bösch.
