The Selling of the President is the enduring story of the 1968 campaign that wrote the script for modern Presidential politicking—and how that script came to be. It introduces: Harry Treleaven, the first adman to suggest that issues bore voters, that image is what counts. Roger Ailes, a PR man who coordinated the TV presentations that delivered the product. Frank Shakespeare, the man behind the whole campaign, who, after eighteen years at CBS, cast the image that sold America a President ...
